65th Annual Tidewater Camellia Club Show Saturday, February 28, 2015

The Tidewater Camellia Club proudly announces its annual camellia show at the New Hanover County Arboretum, 6206 Oleander Drive, Wilmington, NC, on Saturday, February 28, 2015. This historic show is free and open to the public from 1:00 P.M. until 5:00 P.M. The Plant Sale starts at 9:00 A. M. The 65th Tidewater Camellia Club Show attracts exhibitors from all over the Southeastern United States. Camellia experts will display over 1,000 blooms for evaluation by American Camellia Society judges.

At 12:30 P.M. a VIP (very important person) will continue our club's tradition of cutting a Red Ribbon to officially open the show. The public will then be invited to enter the hall and view the magnificent camellia blooms. Floral arrangements highlighting camellias will also be presented by various garden clubs. A children's art display will be presented by local elementary schools students. An excellent selection of camellias will be available for purchase. Call (910) 509-1792 with any questions. Visit our web site at www.tidewatercamellioclub.org - for more details.
